We would be delighted if you would join us for a breakfast briefing about the government's next stage consultation in relation to the proposed changes to the taxation of non-UK domiciled individuals (non-doms) and inheritance tax on UK residential property.

Location

Regency Room

Old Government House
Hotel

Speaking at the event will be partners from our London office, Clare Cromwell, Emma Hendron and Robert Langston. They have recently produced a Taxation Briefing on the government's consultation document.

The briefing will take place in the Regency Room of the Old Government House Hotel, where breakfast will be provided.

There is no cost for this event.
