UK Trust Register - what you need to know

Following the UK's implementation of the Fourth Anti-Money Laundering Directive (4AMLD) on 26 June 2017, new reporting requirements for trusts have been introduced, including a register for certain trusts. The HMRC Trusts and estates registration service is now live.

You will find our summary of the key information contained in the regulations on our web page UK Trust Register.

Introduction of second 2017 Finance Bill

The Government confirmed on 13 July 2017 that a second 2017 Finance Bill will be introduced as soon as possible after Parliament's summer recess, to include provisions relating to the new deemed domicile regime and the extension of IHT to UK residential property via an offshore structure.
